

Kairos: Confirmation Camp

Entering Grades 6-9

Cost: Tiered Pricing

FAST FACTS:

Housing

Kairos campers sleep in traditional bunk houses in Frontier Town & in the Manna Center. Adults are housed separately.

Meals

Most meals are served in the dinning hall with some cookouts.

Group Size

Cabin groups are 8 campers to 1 counselor. Sugar Creek recommends a similar ratio of adult chaperones.

Activities

- Daily Congregational Time
- Bluff Overnight with Horses
- Offsite Canoe Trip
- Classic Camp Activities
- Interactive worships
- BBQ Bash
- & More!

Kairos at Sugar Creek invites you to experience God's appointed time, whether in Confirmation or exploring your faith. The program fosters spiritual growth, friendships, and classic camp activities such as canoeing, swimming, and hiking. Daily interactions with pastors and youth leaders include worship, games, and campfires, creating an immersive experience of faith, fun, and discovery that lasts beyond camp.

Church Leaders!

Church leaders, to register your group for Kairos, please contact the Sugar Creek office to reserve your block of spots. We will set up a unique Group ID so your families can easily access that block, and you may also request a transfer code if your church will be handling payments. A meeting will be held in Spring to answer questions, share curriculum ideas, and prepare you for your time at camp.
